Data processing related to the use of cookies

Our website uses its own cookies to ensure its proper functioning and essential functions and uses Google Analytics cookies to provide anonymous statistics.

A cookie is a file (package of information) that is placed on the browsing device when the data subject visits a website. The use of cookies provides the possibility to retrieve certain data of the visitor and to record their internet using habits. In general, cookies can facilitate using a website, help the website to provide the right information to the data subject, and allow website operators to monitor the functioning of the website (e.g. to prevent abuse and to ensure that the services available on the website are adequate).

You can access information on Google Analytics cookie usage at the following links: https://developers.google.com/analytics/devguides/collection/analyticsjs/cookie-usage. Google's privacy policy is available at the following link: https://policies.google.com/privacy?hl=hu&gl=hu. Google Analytics cookies are third-party cookies, and the data collected by the cookies may be transferred to the service provider unless your browser settings prevent this. If you do not wish to allow the transfer of your data, you can opt out under the following link or by downloading and installing a browser module: https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en.

By accessing the website operated by B13 Építőművész Kft. (benyei.hu website and its subdomains) the website may automatically save information using these cookies, provided that the browser settings used by the Visitor allow it or if the Visitor explicitly consents to it upon the first visit of the website. Allowing the use of cookies is voluntary. Cookies can usually be disabled in the browser's Tools/Preferences menu, under Privacy and/or Cookies or Cookies.

By agreeing to the Cookie Warning that pops up when You first use our Website and by using the Website, You agree to the use of cookies in accordance with this Cookie Policy Notice, which includes your acceptance of the use of cookies placed by third parties for the purposes and under the conditions set out below. If you do not accept the use of cookies or wish to limit their use in part, please disable them by changing your browser settings so that cookies on this website cannot be placed on your computer.

This cookie notice should be read in conjunction with our Privacy Notice, which contains detailed information about the identity and contact details of the data controller and the rights of Data Subjects, and which is also available on our website at the link below: https://benyei.hu/files/Adatkezelesi-tajekoztato-benyeihu.pdf

Function and performance cookies:
These cookies collect information about visitors to the Website anonymously, using a customer identification code randomly generated by the cookie, for statistical purposes. These cookies allow us to monitor and improve the performance of our website, for example, they allow us to track the number of visits, identify the source of traffic and the most popular parts of the website. The Data Controller is unable to identify the Data Subject on the basis of the data and does not take steps to identify the Data Subject. The purpose of data processing is to provide the data controller with information on the number of visits to the website and other data for statistical purposes, and thus to enable the controller to improve the website and increase its security. The legal basis for the processing is the consent of the Data Subject, which can be given in the cookie pop-up window upon the first visit to the website. If the user does not change the predefined checkboxes, the Function and performance cookies will not be installed automatically. The Data Controller uses the data anonymously to compile statistics and for analysis, and no automated decision-making is made on the basis of these data, nor does the Data Controller send personalized offers to users on this basis.
